data and authorities to support their separate views in case the question goes to court for settlement. Mr. Brown, pointing out that both points were legal problems, indicated at last Thursday's hearing that he would take the matter of bringing the problem to the attention of the Appellate Division under consideration.

Brooklyn Politicians Said

To Be Involved in Aiding
Applicants; Hylan To Be Called to Stand Tuesday

The Meyer legislative committee investigating the Hylan administration has come into possession of information involving certain Brooklyn politicians and a city department in connection with an alleged scheme for "easing" the entrance of applicants into the police force.

The members of the committee refused to go into details with regard to the matter, but it was known that investigators recently have been extremely active in examing certain practices within the Police Department. It will be one of the first subjects taken up by the committee after the problem of the status of the city's finances has been disposed of.

With respect to the question as to whether the city has overstepped its debt and tax limits, as was charged by Elon R. Brown, the committee's counsel, both Comptroller Craig and the committee's lawyer are gathering

INSTRUCTION

The Mayor is expected to express his levs on the effect of mandatory legislation on the city's financial affairs when he takes the stand on Tuesday morning, when the session of the committee are resumed. He will be followed probably on Wednesday by Comptroller Craig, who is known to be anxious to say something on the same subject. The committee will then take up a minute scrutiny of the various departments under the direct control of the Mayor.

Drennan Plans to Minimize

Demotion of War Veterans William Drennan, Civil Service Commissioner, announced yesterday that the cases of all Civil Service employees reduced in rank by reason of the Court of Appeals decision that the veterans would be referred to the Corporation Counsel, and when he takes the stand on Tuesday morning, when the sessions of the committee or training, when the sessions of the committee or committee are resumed. He will be anxious to say something on the seme subject. The committee are resumed. He will be anxious to say something on the seme subject. The committee will then take up a minute scrutiny of t
